ANNEXURE TO THE NOTICE

The Explanatory Statement pursuant to section 102(1) and (2) of The Companies Act, 2013 with respect to the special business under Item no. 01 to Item no. 03 as set out in the notice is annexed hereto.

ITEM NO. 01

In terms of Article 14 of the existing Article of Association (“AOA”) the Company is required to pass a special resolution for utilization of Securities Premium Account. As per Section 52(1) of the Companies Act, 2013 securities premium account can be utilized only for purposes specified in Sub-section (2) of the Section 52 of the Companies Act, 2013.

Now your Company need to write off the commission and issue expenses on 80210 equity shares, allotted on 30th December, 2017. Proposed utilization of securities premium account of the Company is in ambit of Clause (c) of Sub-section (2) of the Section 52 of the Companies Act, 2013.

As apparent from the above legal position, your company may not be required to pass special resolution to write-off the expense of issue of shares from securities premium account. However, Article 14 of the Articles of Association of the Company states that the Company by passing a special resolution may reduce its share capital, capital redemption reserve account and/or securities premium account. The said clause is reproduced herein below for your ready reference:

“14. The company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorized and consent required by law,—

- a) its share capital;
- b) any capital redemption reserve account; and/or
- c) any share premium account.”

The Articles of Association of the Company contain a separate clause 15 regarding reduction of share capital by application of securities premium account. Accordingly, it would mean that clause 14 relates to the matter where application of securities premium account does not amount to reduction of share capital just like the instant case.

The Directors accordingly recommend the resolution as set out in Item No. 1 for your approval as a Special resolution.
